Customer Service Representative May 17, 2022 to September 29, 2023
Alorica | Quezon City Eton Centris

My journey as a Customer Service Representative refined my communication skills since that's what we do everyday in our job, providing long term solutions about customers concern, and effective time management since we are used to handling multiple customers at a time. Moreover, my journey has reinforced the significance of empathy and adaptability, emphasizing the importance of creating meaningful connections with customers while remaining responsive to evolving demands. As I look forward to new opportunities, I am confident that the lessons learned during my tenure will serve as a strong foundation for continued growth and success in any related field.
