

ABOUT ME

With a B.Sc. (Honours) in Information Technology from Future University, Khartoum, I have developed a strong foundation in procurement, showcasing my skills as a Procurement Supervisor at Dal Agricultural. Now, as a Procurement Officer at Sayga Commodities, I am enhancing my expertise within the International Markets department. My professional journey is further strengthened by completing the Cisco Certified Network Associate course, which complements my technical acumen and proficiency in procurement operations. Mastery in CIPS also underscores my capability to excel in this dynamic field.
